GRAPE GROWERS

Mornington Peninsula is a unique maritime wine region where vines thrive in a cool climate and sheltered undulating valleys.

The majority of the region's vineyards are small family operations, some of which are focused solely on grape growing.

The Mornington Peninsula Vignerons Association

The Mornington Peninsula Vignerons Association is the industry association for the winemakers and grape growers of the Mornington Peninsula Wine Region.

The key objectives of the Association are:

- to enhance the profile of the Mornington Peninsula wine region and market it as a leading producer of high quality, maritime, cool climate wines,
- to foster the development of expertise within the industry by facilitating technical and commercial training,
- to represent the regional industry to its various audiences, including the local community, tourism organizations, industry bodies and Government,
- to coordinate the production of information and promotional activities of common interest to members.

The Mornington Peninsula is a leading producer of maritime, cool climate wines. Today the region comprises more than 170 vineyards with total plantings of more than 775 hectares. The total area planted has almost doubled since 1996. The Mornington Peninsula's two main wine varieties - Pinot Noir and Chardonnay - have increased to almost 80% of hectares planted.

MPVA CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2006

Details of all the following activities can be obtained from the Mornington Peninsula Vignerons Association website www.mpva.com.au or phone (03) 5989 2377

AUTUMN Mornington Peninsula Piers & Pinots 12 March 2006 Flinders Yacht Club, Sunday 12 March 2006 12-3pm

Wine tasting, by the glass or bottle matched by local cuisine. Finish Line for the first Piers & Pinots Yacht Race, live music.

When you live on the Mornington Peninsula you often feel like you are living on the top deck of a ship - surrounded by water and on top of the world! We will capture this spirit and truly great maritime cool climate wine with tastings by the sea in an intimate gathering on Sunday 12 March at Flinders Yacht Club from midday. Wines will be matched by local restaurant fare and you will also be treated to the inaugural Peninsula Piers & Pinots Yacht Race!

Mornington Peninsula's cool maritime climate creates ideal conditions to ripen all of the Pinot family. Our spirit of adventure has created many styles of wine from seriously structured Pinot Noir, it's softer earthier cousin Meunier, voluptuous Pinot Gris, racy Pinot Grigio, Blanc de Noir Sparkling and more. Discover the length and breadth of Peninsula Pinot whilst cheering in the Flinders fleet at our first Peninsula Piers & Pinots Yacht Race.

Entry includes complimentary glass and tasting tickets, then purchase wine by the glass or bottle. Treat yourself & friends or family. Pre-booking available January 2006. All details available at www.mpva.com.au from December 2005.

WINTER Winter Wine Weekend 10-12 June 2006

Winter Wine Weekend 10-12 June 2006 Queens Birthday Weekend is known for the less strenuous pursuit of wine appreciation and local food grazing on the Mornington Peninsula - than the start of the Snow Season. The launch event Winter Wine Fest spectacular, an exhibition and tasting of more than 150 Mornington Peninsula premium wines takes place at Red Hill Recreation Reserve, Arthurs Seat Road, Red Hill from 11am-4pm on Saturday 10 June. Great wine, great food, great music is a sample of what the Mornington Peninsula has to offer. The Winter Wine Fest is a great way to start the weekend. It's an opportunity to sample a wide variety of Mornington Peninsula wines, many new releases, compare wine styles from different vineyards, talk to the winemakers and discover new wines. There are seminars on Mornington Peninsula wine varieties pinot noir, chardonnay & others running throughout the day.

In addition, more than 40 wineries from Mt Eliza to Flinders to Merricks to Sorrento will hold special wine tastings, tours and functions with delicious food - music ranging from opera to jazz throughout the weekend. Plan to stay the weekend and enjoy the abundance on offer in our region! Or come back on quieter winter weekends and take some leisurely wine tours or seminars.....

For regular updates of these events (and details of the Pinot Noir Celebration in 2007 please advise email via contact section of www.mpva.com.au - and we would be happy to send regular bulletins to you

*Each year this annual Wine Touring Map is published by the Mornington Peninsula Vignerons Association. This information is included in www.mpva.com.au and any updates which occur during the year will be published to the website.

FRIENDS OF THE MORNINGTON PENINSULA VIGNERONS ASSOCIATION

The Friends of the Mornington Peninsula Vignerons is a social group that gets together to learn more about the wines of the Mornington Peninsula region and to support the local vigneron. The group meets regularly for formal and informal functions such as wine tastings, vineyard tours, barbecues and dinners.
